First home of Abraham son of Johannes Abraham

Descendants of Johannes Adam Zern

Generation No. 1

1. JOHANNES ADAM¹ ZERN was born Abt. 1730 in Grabens, Germany, and died 1799. He married JUSTINA CATHARINA MECHLLIN. She was born February 13, 1740/41, and died September 20, 1798.

Notes for JOHANNES ADAM ZERN:

Hans Adam Zurne was a resident of Grabens, Germany, a village on the Rhine river

10 Zern immigrants are listed on various ship lists. Of the ten, Johannes, also known as Hans Adam is our forefather. He signed his own name on the ship lists and spelled it Zurne.

He paid taxes in Philadelphia County as early a 1779 and until 1799 in Montgomery County so his death must have occurred in that year. However, his wife, Catharina Mecklein, lived at least until 1808 when records show she communed at the New Goshenhoppen church. The graves of Hans and his wife have not been found as of now.

Johannes Zurn, last from Rotterdam, came across in the ship Edinbulrgh commanded by James Russell and landed at Philadelphia on September 19, 1752. The ship had to stop at Cowes, England to come and three lists has to be signed:

1. The list of abjuration to renounce, under oath, their mother country.
2. The list of allegiance pledging layalty to the new country (not found).
3. The captain's list (not found).

Children under sixteen did not sign the lists. Only one of these lists remain.

The list of abjuration has 104 signers. The signature of Johannes appears on this list in very good penmanship. No X is attached to his name proving that he signed it himself.

All of this is recorded by Strassburger and Hinke in Pennsylvania German Pioneers and can be found in the Pennsylvani archives at Philadelphia. We were still Philadelphia County at this time. Bucks, Chester, and Philadelphia were the couonties in the early eighteenth century. In the year 1784 Montgomery County came into being, so some of the early records concerning us are in the Pennsylvania archives in Philadelphia.

The names of Jacob Mecklein and Jacob Kehl are also found on the ship's list. These families were friendlly with Hans Adam, as recorded in the aactivities of the New GoshennHoppen and Swamp Lutheran churches. His name is now recorded as Hans Adam Zern instead of Johannes Zurn.

There are many variants to the original Zurn. There are almost too many to mention. Some are- Zern, Zarn, Zerns, Zerny, ernin, Zirn, Zorn, and Zoern. In Pennsylvania, Zern, Zarn, Zurn, or Zorn may refer to the same person. Names were usually spelled the way they sounded to the recorder. The only records to be found of those early days were the births, deaths, and confirmations as found in church records. Later, tax lists and titles to properties were recorded at the court house- as were also their wills, unless they died intestate.

Hans owned 19 acres of land, Pleasant Run along route 663 near Pennsburg. His son, Abraham, owned some land that touched his fathers.

Justina Catharina Zuen (but in reality Zurn or Zern) , wife of Adam died, or was buried, September 20, 1798, aged 57 years, 7 months, and 7 days, as recorded in the Rev. Dr. J.J. Kline's History of the Lutheran Church of New Hanover, Montgomery County, Pennsylvania.

Her maiden name was Mechlien and the particulars of her marriage to Adam are unknown, but her birth must have been February 13, 1741. It is presumed that she came across in the same ship as Hans Adam but she was only eleven years old, not quite twelve, so she would not have signed the list as the immigrants did because children less than sixteen years did not sign the list.
